DANVILLE:

Friday, ::::: Aug. 1, 1856.

DECLINED.—We are requested to say that Jona. NICHOLS, Esq., is no longer a candidate for Circuit Court Clerk in this county.

SPRINGFIELD.—Wellington Harlan and Thos. Z. MORROW, Esqs., the American and Democratic County Electors, have an appointment to speak at Bellow's Bridge, to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon at 2 o'clock, and at Mock's school house on Saturday week at the same hour.

For Russell Springs.—Messrs. PATTERSON, the proprietors of Russell Springs, are running a Hack regularly from this place, once a week—arriving here, at the Batterton House every Tuesday evening, and leaving for the Springs every Wednesday morning.

Some of our merchants have already started East for their fall supplies. The remainder will go next week.

MESSRS. HANSON and GABRIEL reached here Wednesday evening, and spoke yesterday. As we put our paper to press early, we are unable to give any account of the debate. Hanson has been winning complete victories over all opposition wherever he has spoken, and his speeches everywhere are spoken of in the highest terms of praise. He is doing valiant service in the great cause of Americanism, and the party is fortunate in having such a champion.

HEWLEY.—Read the new advertisement of our friend J. C. HEWLEY. His stock is now, as indeed it always is, full and assorted, embracing Groceries, Confectionaries, and Varieties, in almost endless profusion.

EMMA BARTLEY.—NEW SUPPLY.—We are requested to state that our bookkeepers have a new supply of the above celebrated work, by "Kate Harrington." All who desire a copy can now obtain it.

BOOT AND SHOE STORE.—MR. C. E. FARRAND has purchased the Boot and Shoe Store of Mr. F. P. WHITCHER, in this place, and is now in the East purchasing his fall and winter stock, which he intends to be very large and complete. As "Charley" is something of a ladies' man, he is having the store-room at Whitcher's old stand fitted up in nice style, and will at times keep a fine stock of Gaiters, Shoes, and Slippers for the special accommodation of his fair patrons. Mr. Farrand is it proper to add, is experienced in the shoe trade, and may be relied on as a judge in that line.

PROF. HALE.—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns, that Prof. HALE will commence a series of Lectures on Electro-Biology, at the Court House, on Tuesday evening next. Prof. H. has been for eight or ten years lecturing through the South, and from the large number of complimentary notices we have seen concerning him, we judge that he has been universally successful, both in attracting large audiences, and in entertaining and interesting them. His experiments are everywhere spoken of as being of the most astonishing character, requiring to be seen in order to be believed. We have no sort of doubt but that all who may attend his lectures here, will feel amply compensated for the time they so expend.

WE have frequently intimated to the contemptible jackass who does the lying for the Somerset Democrat, that we desired no controversy with him. An article in the last number of that sheet, in reference to us, might demand some reply, and if we thought it was written by a gentleman, (which we know from its language it was not,) we would certainly give it.

MUSIC.—We are indebted to D. P. FAULDS, of Louisville, for "THE LOST STEAMER," written and composed by W. F. Brough, in memory of dear friends on board of the Pacific. All orders for Music sent to Mr. Faulds will be promptly attended to. He keeps a large supply both of Music and Musical instruments.

RETURNS.—Our friends in the various counties, will greatly oblige us by sending us their election returns at the earliest possible moment.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE's Washington correspondent, who, like his employer, hates Mr. Fillmore with the bitterest hatred, says: "Bets are running high in Washington that Fillmore will carry Virginia."

THE ELECTION.—We hope that it is unnecessary for us to make any further appeal to the voters of this judicial district, in regard to the election to be held on Monday next. Every American who has given even a moiety of his attention to the contest, both for Appellate and Circuit Judge, and Commonwealth's Attorney, cannot but have been long since impressed with the fact, that the Democracy, while pretending, on account of the known majority against them, that political questions were to exert (with them) no influence in the race, have all the time been quietly preparing for a party contest, and nothing but a party contest, at the polls. Let any one who doubts this fact, point to the Democrats, if any can be found, who intend voting for the American candidates. In view, then, of this state of things, the Americans have a high and important duty to perform. The result of the August election will be taken by our opponents as an indication of the American strength, and it will be used in such a way, (if our candidates are defeated,) as to have a powerful influence in deciding the great struggle in November. Let no American who desires the success of Fillmore—who desires that our glorious Commonwealth shall re-affirm her devotion to American principles—allow himself to be kept from the polls, or permit anything, especially the delusive and hypocritical cry of "no party" by our opponents, to prevent him from voting for the candidates who are American in principle. With Thomas A. Marshall, as Appellate Judge; Thos. E. Bramlette, as Circuit Judge; and Ephraim L. Vanwinkle as Commonwealth's Attorney, we will have officers to whom the people can look with pride, and depend upon with confidence.

OFFICERS OF THE ELECTION.—The following are the officers appointed by the County Judge, to hold the election in this county, on Monday next:

DISTRICT NO. 1.—Voting place at Crane's (late Willis') Tavern, in Perryville. Officers: J. W. Borton and G. T. Kirkland, Judges; John Smith, Clerk; Jackson Walker, Sheriff.

DISTRICT NO. 2.—Voting place at Barkley's Tavern, in Perryville. Officers: W. W. Gregory and W. H. Prewitt, Judges; Jos. H. Hopper, Clerk; Geo. H. Fulkerson, Sheriff.

DISTRICT NO. 3.—Voting place at the Central House, in Danville. Officers: Henry Bruce and J. H. Irvine, Judges; W. C. Anderson, Clerk; C. Ridgway, Sheriff.

DISTRICT NO. 4.—Voting place at the Court House, in Danville. Officers: C. T. Worthington and C. Rodes, Judges; Jas. F. Zimmerman, Clerk; W. C. Compton, Sheriff.

THE Louisville Democrat is so intent upon serving its party, that it has to interfere in the election for Appellate Judge in this district. The issue for Tuesday, of that paper, contains two articles against Judge Marshall—opposing his election—not because he is a party candidate, but because no honest man can charge him with being—but simply because he is a member of the American party. This interference of the Democrat is designed to have its effect in rallying the self-styled Democracy for Judge Duval. We hope the Americans of the District will mark the fact.

THE Pittsburg Commercial Journal is very confident that Buchanan cannot carry the State of Pennsylvania. It says the Democracy are in a minority of twenty-five or thirty thousand in Pennsylvania at this moment, and they know it.

HEAR YE!—At a Democratic meeting in Cincinnati last week, Mr. Groesbeck, the speaker for the occasion, in the course of his speech, declared that "the election of Buchanan would make Kansas FREE!" That is the way Mr. Buchanan's election is advocated in the free States. In the slave-holding States his election is advocated on precisely opposite grounds! Which section is to be fooled, cheated, and betrayed in the event of Mr. Buchanan's election? The South, of course!

FROM every portion of the country, we are in daily receipt of the most cheering intelligence of the brightening prospects of Fillmore and Donelson. Their election in the estimation of the shrewdest politicians is now a fixed fact. The destiny of the American party is onward and upward. Truer hearts never beat in a nobler cause, than the cause of Americans. Americans must rule America! It has been spoken—and thank God, there are not yet traitors enough in the land to prevent it.

THE Arkansas Shield, of July 5th, contains letters from Henry Archibald, Elisha Walker, Absalom Moreland, T. W. Hill, Alfred Mainard, B. L. Bayless, W. B. Cooper, John R. Crosby, Peter Simmons, G. W. Rickey, and Lemuel Kincler, announcing their withdrawal from the foreign Democracy, and their adherence to the American party. The Shield says, all these were prominent and leading members of the so-called Democracy, and never have voted any other ticket but the Democratic.

ACQUITTAL OF HERBERT.—The California member of Congress, who killed the Irish waiter at Willard's Hotel in Washington, has been acquitted.

MR. Fillmore is at present rusticiating at Niagara.

DON'T NEGLECT TO VOTE.—We gratefully call upon our friends to be at the polls, and vote on Monday next. Don't neglect it. Judge MARSHALL, candidate for Appellate Judge; Col. BRAMLETTE, for Circuit Judge; and Mr. VANWINKLE, for Commonwealth's Attorney, are known to be men who possess high qualifications for the offices to which they aspire. The Democracy are making desperate efforts, quietly but none the less industriously, to defeat them, and secure what they will certainly boast of, if successful, a "Democratic triumph." Let no American be deluded by their "no party" cry.

RECOLLECT IT ON MONDAY NEXT.—In this Judicial District, where the Americans are known to have a large majority, the opposition are loud in their deprecation of party races for judicial office. "Don't make it a party race," is the cry we hear from them on one end of the district to the other. In the districts, however, where Sag Nictism is in the ascendant, no such cry is heard. On the contrary, the "Democracy" are urged to stand to their candidates, and reminded of the fact that the issue of the August elections, will have a great influence upon the Presidential contest of November.

The following from the last Harrodsburg Transcript, published in a district which is the stronghold of our opponents, is only a sample of what may be found in all other Democratic papers similarly situated:

REMEMBER, That arrangements are always made to poll every Know-Nothing vote in every election, and that it is important, therefore, to see that every Democratic vote is also polled. Vote early, and vote for none but known and tried Democrats.

That reads as if the Democracy were opposed to party races for the judiciary—doesn't it? Every race, from "town dog pelter" to the Presidency, is made a "party race" by them, and we earnestly urge our American friends to REMEMBER that Sag Nictism is always ready to poll its full strength in every election, for its party men, and that it is, therefore, important to see that every American vote is polled also. Vote early, and vote for none but known and tried Americans.

NOTE THIS FACT, TOO.—That of all people on the face of the earth, the self-styled Democracy should be the last ones to appeal for American votes. There never was a party against which the same amount of low-flung abuse, lying misrepresentation and unjustifiable bitterness, has been used, as there has against the American party. Every newspaper professing to be Democratic, has been filled with it—every Sag Nicticator, from the oldest and most talented down to the veriest ton-tit that felt himself called to denounce his betters, has belched forth the vilest slang against our men and measures. "Tories," "Hindoes," "midnight conspirators," and "traitors," are only a part of the epithets which have been applied to us, because we had the independence and patriotism to declare our preference for American born rulers, and none others. Even Napoleon Bonaparte Stone, the gentleman who is a candidate for Commonwealth's Attorney in opposition to Mr. Vanwinkle, and who pretends that he is not a party candidate, in his speech on Monday last, indulged in some of the usual contemptible insinuations in reference to our party, and its mode of proceeding. And Andrew Jackson James, who expects to be elected Circuit Judge by the assistance of American votes, is the very identical individual who was a prominent member of a committee in the last Democratic State Convention, by whom was reported a resolution declaring the "American party foes to our Constitution, our Laws, and our Free Government," and in another resolution declared that they regarded "with abhorrence, the organized falsehoods and treacherous secrecy of the Know-Nothing!" What right have such men to expect the vote of a single American who respects himself or regards his principles?

CHANGING THEIR TUNE.—It was only a few weeks ago, that the New York Tribune and Herald were making merry over what they considered as Mr. Fillmore's slim chances for success. Now, however, their eyes have become opened, and both of them call upon the Black Republicans to rally against Fillmore, whose chances they now regard as far superior to those of Mr. Buchanan. Fillmore, says the Herald, is the man they have to fear, and accordingly all sorts of means are being used, but without effect, to put a stop to his growing popularity. The Hard Democrats, of New York are uniting with the Americans—the Softs are going for Fremont—Buchanan is left out of the fight in the Empire State! Read the other items of news which we give from New York.

THIS, the Second Appellate District, is composed of the counties of Brecken, Pendleton, Campbell, Kenton, Boone, Gallatin, Carroll, Trimble, Henry, Owen, Grant, Harrison, Scott, Fayette, Jessamine, Garrard, Boyle, Mercer, Anderson, Franklin, Woodford, Shelby and Oldham.

SPEAKING ON MONDAY LAST.—Our citizens had the pleasure on last Monday, of hearing from the candidates for Commonwealth's Attorney. Mr. STONE opened the debate in quite a long speech, in which he endeavored very zealously to convince the audience that he was, though a Democrat, violently opposed to making his race depend upon party grounds—principally, we suppose, because the district is largely American in politics, as the candidates of his party in Democratic districts, are not at all conscientious about such matters. Mr. Stone attempted to wheedle the old-line Whigs, for whom he seems to have an intense admiration, and is terribly afraid lest the American party will ostracize them entirely. Mr. Stone was once a Whig himself, obtained the confidence of the party, and was elected to office by them—but he made it convenient, for some reason or other, to turn his coat, and we humbly think, all things considered, that he is the last man who has the right to expect Whig support. After declaring his objection to political discussion in such a contest, and endeavoring to cast the blame for the introduction of such a discussion upon the shoulders of his opponent—Mr. Stone entered upon an argument in favor of the Democratic party and candidates, indulging, as far as he was competent, in the usual slang against the American party and its standard-bearers in the present National contest. He is not making a party race, (so he says) but is about as strong a partisan as we have recently seen or heard, and when in Democratic neighborhoods, as we are reliably informed, is by no means slow in appealing to his party friends. Mr. Stone is no speaker—and aside from politics altogether, there is reason to object to his election, on the ground alone that he could not by any means cope in debate with the majority of the lawyers he would have to contend with, in representing the interests of the Commonwealth in our courts of justice. Mr. VANWINKLE, his opponent, on the other hand, is not only a fine lawyer, but he is an eloquent and impressive speaker. His speech on Monday last, in reply to Mr. Stone, was one of the most complete triumphs we have ever seen achieved by any man in debate. It is regarded by every one as the best speech of the canvass. It was not only a most successful defence of his own position, but an exceedingly eloquent vindication of the principles of our party, and the men selected as our leaders. He was frequently interrupted, especially during his defence of Millard Fillmore, by the enthusiastic, almost deafening shouts which appeared to issue from almost every throat in the audience.

At the conclusion of Mr. Stone's rejoinder, which it is unnecessary for us to review, Messrs. Bramlette and James, in a few remarks, announced themselves to the audience, as candidates for Circuit Judge. Here is another contest, concerning which, the opposition plead for a "no party race," while they are known to be rallying, almost to a man, for Mr. James, who is a Democrat, and of course will get the vote of his party—doubtless he expects it—and only hopes that enough Americans can be deluded into his support, to render him the successful candidate, and thus achieve a "Democratic victory."

We have nothing to say about Mr. James' qualifications. We know nothing about them. He has the reputation of being a good lawyer, and a most bitter and vindictive politician. Col. Bramlette we know and know well. That he is eminently qualified for the office of Judge no one can doubt, nor can it be denied that he combines with his legal ability all those qualities, both of head and heart, which go to make up the true gentleman—reliable, prompt and honest, and the very one to be voted for by all who desire a Judge who will preside over our Courts with firmness, correctness, and impartiality.

WHO IS AHEAD?—There are American electoral tickets, straight out Fillmore and Donelson electoral tickets, in Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut, New Jersey, Delaware, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Kentucky, Illinois, Mississippi, North Carolina, Tennessee, Arkansas, Georgia, Alabama, Missouri, Louisiana, Texas, Florida, and California—in all TWENTY-FOUR States. What other party has as many?

KEEP IT BEFORE THE PEOPLE.

1. That A. J. James is opposed to Common Schools, that he voted against the two and three cent tax.
2. That he is opposed to the proper qualification of teachers by the State.
3. That he voted large sums of money for objects of no benefit to his section of the State.
4. That he is a Conch Shell man—that the said bill appropriated at least $100,000 to defray the expenses of blowing Conch Shells along the Ohio river.
5. That he proposed to tax poor people to pay for the expense of catching runaway negroes.
6. That his substitute placed a premium on crimes.
7. That it would have bankrupted the State.
8. That he has misrepresented his course while in the Legislature by saying that he voted against the Conch Shell bill, when the record shows that no direct vote was ever had on the original bill.—Somerset Gazette.

MR. C. G. Sheffield, proprietor of the Chicago Type Foundry, died recently.

NEW YORK.—CHEERING NEWS FROM THE EMPIRE STATE!—The following, from Gen. Combs, appears in the Lexington Observer:

NEW YORK, July 19, 1856.

DEAR SIR: From very reliable information the contest in this State will be between Fremont and Free negroes on one side, and Fillmore on the other. The Hard Democrats will help the latter—the Softs the former.

They all say Buchanan has no chance in New York.

Yours, &c.

LESLIE COMBS.

D. C. WICKLIFFE, Esq.

The above is important. Gen. Combs left Kentucky a few weeks since, under the impression that Fillmore stood no chance. But when he gets to New York, he finds his mistake in the fact, that in the Empire State, casting a greater number of electoral votes than any other in the confederacy, the contest is given up by all parties, to be between Fillmore and Fremont—that even the Democrats themselves are dividing between the two, and leaving Buchanan altogether out of the fight. Other advices from New York, as well as from every other quarter, are of the most cheering nature. We begin to feel very much like huzzaking, as we emerge "from the woods."

The Americans of the city of New York held a grand Fillmore meeting at the Academy of Music on Thursday night last. The meeting was attended by more than five thousand persons, and the enthusiasm of the crowd would not permit them to adjourn till midnight. The following resolution—brief, but enough, and true—was adopted:

Resolved, That James Buchanan or John C. Fremont cannot be elected, but that Millard Fillmore can.

FOR FILLMORE.—The Daily Gazette, a strong Hard Democratic journal, at Utica, N. Y., finding that Buchanan has no chance to carry New York, has hauled down the names of Buchanan and Breckinridge, and hoisted that of the only National candidate, Fillmore and Donelson. All the National Democrats of the Empire State will go for Fillmore.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

A WONDERFUL MEDICINE.—The immense success attending the use of HURLEY'S Sarsaparilla, in almost every disease, and every stage of disease, has given it a name equalled only by its good effects.

The medicinal properties prescribe it freely when the use is indicated and proper, and esteem them in the ingredients of which it is composed the best remedial agents for the permanent cure of Scrofula, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, Cutaneous Eruptions, and that relaxed and exhausted condition of the muscular energy so frequent at this period of the year. To the aged or infirm it is of incalculable benefit.—Baltimore Sun.
